

Sing to God new songs of worship-

all his deeds are marvellous;
he has brought salvation to us
with his hand and holy arm:
he has shown to all the nations
righteousness and saving power;
he recalled his truth and mercy
to his people Israel.

Sing to God new songs of worship-
earth has seen his victory;
let the lands of earth be joyful
praising him with thankfulness:
sound upon the harp his praises,
play to him with melody;
let the trumpets sound his triumph,
show your joy to God the king!

Sing to God new songs of worship-
let the sea now make a noise;
all on earth and in the waters
sound your praises to the Lord:
let the hills be joyful together, let the rivers clap their hands,
for with righteousness and justice
he will come to judge the earth.

Michael Baughen, from Psalm 98 Ccli licence 20979

Sing of the Lord's goodness,

Father of all wisdom,

come to him and bless his name.
Mercy he has shown us, his love is for ever,
faithful to the end of days.
Come then all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.

Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.

Power he has wielded, honour is his garment,
risen from the snares of death.
His word he has spoken, one bread he has broken,
new life he now gives to all.
Come then all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.

Courage in our darkness, comfort in our sorrow,
Spirit of our God most high;
solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner,
splendour of the living God.
Come then all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.

Praise him with your singing, praise him with the trumpet,
praise God with the lute and harp;
praise him with the cymbals, praise him with your dancing,
praise God till the end of days.
Come then all you nations,
sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.
Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.

Bless the Lord oh my soul,

*Oh my soul:
Worship His Holy name.
Sing like never before,
Oh my soul;
I'll worship Your Holy name.*

The sun comes up
It's a new day dawning
It's time to sing Your song again
Whatever may pass
And whatever lies before me
Let me be singing
When the evening comes

You're rich in love
And You're slow to anger
Your name is great
And Your heart is kind
For all Your goodness
I will keep on singing
Ten thousand reasons
For my heart to find

And on that day
When my strength is failing
The end draws near
And my time has come Still my soul will Sing Your praise unending
Ten thousand years
And then forevermore

Father, I place into your hands

the things that I can't do.
Father, I place into your hands
the times that I've been through.
Father, I place into your hands
the way that I should go,
for I know I always can trust you.

Father, I place into your hands
my friends and family.
Father, I place into your hands
the things that trouble me.
Father, I place into your hands
the person I would be,
for I know I always can trust you.

Father, we love to seek your face,
we love to hear your voice.
Father, we love to sing your praise,
and in your name rejoice.
Father, we love to walk with you
and in your presence rest,
for we know we always can trust you.

Father, I want to be with you and do the things you do.
Father, I want to hear the words
that you are speaking too.
Father, I want to love all those that Jesus tells me to,
for I know in Christ I'm one with you.

His gift of love we will celebrate - the Son of God, who loved us
and gave us life.

We'll shout your praise, O King:
you give us joy nothing else can bring;
we'll give to you our offering in celebration praise.

*Come on and celebrate, celebrate,
celebrate and sing,
celebrate and sing to the King:
Come on and celebrate, celebrate,
celebrate and sing,
celebrate and sing to the King!*

Scripture Judges 5: 1-12

On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

'When the princes in Israel take the lead,
when the people willingly offer themselves – praise the Lord!

'Hear this, you kings! Listen, you rulers!

I, even I, will sing to the Lord;

I will praise the Lord, the God of Israel, in song.

'When you, Lord, went out from Seir,

when you marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens

poured, the clouds poured down water.

The mountains quaked before the Lord,

the One of Sinai, before the Lord, the God of Israel.

'In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were abandoned; travellers took to winding paths.

Villagers in Israel would not fight;

they held back until I, Deborah, arose,

until I arose, a mother in Israel.

God chose new leaders when war came to the city gates, but not a shield or spear

was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

My heart is with Israel's princes,

with the willing volunteers among the people. Praise the Lord!

'You who ride on white donkeys,

sitting on your saddle blankets,

and you who walk along the road,

consider the voice of the singers at the watering places.

They recite the victories of the Lord,

the victories of his villagers in Israel.

'Then the people of the Lord went down to the city gates.

"Wake up, wake up, Deborah!

Wake up, wake up, break out in song!

Arise, Barak! Take captive your captives,

son of Abinoam."

Holidays, for most of us, offer an escape to new horizons, fun and adventure. For many families, however, holidays and even school outings are out of reach. These families belong to 20% of our city's population that is income deprived. Over a third of Glasgow's children live in poverty. That's over 36,000 children, many of whom never enjoy a few days at the seaside or in the country. A break can help improve self-esteem and promote better health and wellbeing. We can assist families and children to have a break at a static caravan on the Clyde coast or help with the cost of a school outing by helping to fill our Holiday Jar each Sunday over the summer months. The money raised will be donated to Glasgow Care Foundation to help provide holidays for disadvantaged children – many are young carers or have a disability - and their families, building happy memories. The children in Stepping Stones have given it a good start by donating their offerings for this session. Will you help?

First World War Centenary Commemorations

As part of the congregations commemorations of the First World War centenary we are planning a small exhibition in the church around the time of remembrance Sunday. Do you perhaps have any objects or photos which you would be willing to lend us for the display? Perhaps a family member served during the war, Or you have a family story which you could share? We are looking to make the display personal to the congregation and local community and would like to reflect on this period in history through the people and the things they left behind.

If you think you can help then please contact Fiona.mcaslan@mac.com and let her know by the end of August.
