"A revolutionary movement? Saving the Kirk"

Speaker : Ross Greer MSP

Ross Greer, Green MSP for west of Scotland region and member of the Church of Scotland National Youth Assembly, at the Kirk's General Assembly, argued that the Church of Scotland needs to rage against and overthrow established hierarchies and be at the vanguard of creating a just world for people and planet

Ross Greer : "Young people are at the heart of the Church and every other faith community Scotland, making a huge contribution not just to their faith but to the wider community. In Scotland's Year of Young People we can not only raise the profile of that work but ensure that young people are genuinely empowered and respected in our society. We are after all, certainly not here to be seen but not heard!

Ross Greer is the youngest ever MSP, a Green Party Member of the Scottish Parliament for the West Scotland region, elected at the 2016 election
